Divine Appointments

On our way from NM to OH, we stopped at a Love's gas station to fuel up and take a very needed rest break. As I was pumping our gas, I noticed a tall, middle-aged, middle eastern man holding a sign that said, "NEED GAS TO GO HOME." Instantly, I felt the Lord say, in my heart, "I have blessed you so that you could bless him." Taking a moment to confirm that it was the Spirit leading me and not my flesh - like my flesh would tell me to help a tall scary man - I motioned him to back up his car to the pump.

He walked over to the driver's window and pointed to the driver, who I thought was his wife, to back up the car to the pump. As I walked up to the car, a younger, even taller man got out of the vehicle, and I remember thinking, "Oh, Lord, keep me safe." Just then, I felt the tug from the Holy Spirit again, leading me to fill up his tank and share the gospel with him. With a thick accent and a grateful smile, he thanked me for helping. He was traveling from OH with his father to find a job. The job fell through, and he was heading back home to OK. He seemed very shocked that I was helping him - making a couple of comments about his struggles because of his nationality. After learning his story and gaining his trust, I was able to share Christ with him!!! Please pray for his father, as he is lost and does not speak English.
